Edu-Font Licensing Guide

This guide explains how Edu-Font may be used in clear, practical terms. It helps you choose the correct licence for your needs.

For full legal terms, refer to the Edu-Font Master License Agreement.

The Basics (Applies to Everyone)

You may

- Install the fonts on devices allowed by your licence

- Create printed worksheets and learning materials

- Create digital outputs such as PDFs, images, and slides

- Embed fonts in non-extractable PDFs

- Make backup copies for archival purposes

You may not

- Share, sell, sublicense, or distribute the font files (.ttf)

- Upload the font files for others to download

- Modify or alter the font files

- Use the fonts outside your licensed usage

You are licensing the font for use. Ownership remains with Edu-Aid.

1) Home & Homeschool Licence

Who it's for: Parents, families, and homeschool learners.

Allowed

- Personal and homeschool use

- Printing worksheets for your learners

- Sharing PDFs or printed outputs with your learners

Not allowed

- Sharing font files

- Selling products using the font

- Using the font in apps, websites, or software

2) School / District Licence

Who it's for: Registered schools, institutions, and districts.

Allowed

- Use by educators and staff within the institution

- Installation on school-owned or educator-owned devices

- Printing and sharing worksheets with enrolled learners

- Use within learning management systems

Not allowed

- Distribution of font files outside the institution

- Commercial resale of the font

- App or SaaS use without an App / SaaS licence

3) Commercial / Publishing Licence

Who it's for: Publishers, tutors, and businesses selling educational content.

Allowed

- Selling printed books and worksheets

- Selling digital products such as PDFs and images

- Embedding fonts in non-extractable documents

Not allowed

- Including font files with products

- App, website, or SaaS usage

4) App / SaaS Licence

Who it's for: Apps, websites, and software platforms.

Allowed

- Embedding fonts inside apps or software

- Displaying fonts dynamically

- Distributing compiled applications

Additional terms

- Pricing may be based on users, revenue, or milestones

- Requires a separate commercial agreement

Not allowed

- Redistributing raw font files

- Making fonts downloadable

Which Licence Do I Need?

If you want to…	You need…
Print worksheets at home	Home / Homeschool
Use across a school	School / District
Sell worksheets or books	Commercial / Publishing
Build an app or website	App / SaaS

Need help choosing?

Email schoolfonts@gmail.com with a short description of what you're creating, whether it's free or paid, and where it will be shared.

This guide is a summary only. All use is governed by the Edu-Font Master License Agreement.